

To whom it may concern:

I would like to take this opportunity to inform your company of the outstanding professional standards Lauren Reis-Black has delivered for Harvest Media, Inc.

Lauren has acted as Harvest Media's Creative Director for several national publications we currently produce. Her title is Creative Director; however, that is only one aspect of her position. Her ability to problem solve and communicate with various members of my staff and agents of other companies we work with has proven to be one of her greatest attributes.

As a business owner in a very competitive market such as publishing, it is very refreshing to work with a creative person that understands business and the bottom line.

I write this letter of recommendation with the utmost respect and consideration for Lauren and the job she performs.

In closing, I would like to say if you are considering Lauren for any job in the future I feel confident in saying you will not be disappointed.

Sincerely,

Daniel Collins
CEO
Harvest Media, Inc.
